

I just wanted to say that in my opinion morse code testing should be eliminated from the Amateur Radio Testing. It's an obsolete form of testing, no longer used by any other radio service, and it is turning off people who would otherwise be interested in Amateur Radio. Perhaps a more difficult written test would be better.

Thank you,

Christopher Crafton KG4WXP